

Matt Ryburn join Spirit International

Spirit International welcomes Matt Ryburn as Creative Director.

Matt Ryburn has years of experience in multiple areas of design including packaging, graphics, interactive and product design. For the last 13 years he has been designing exhibits, retail environments, and corporate events and experiences. With his diverse background, Matt adds a multidimensional approach to the Spirit creative team. He has created award winning designs for high profile associations and corporations including: AARP, AT&T, Coors Brewing, GE, McDonald's, Pepsi and Pfizer Pharmaceutical.

Glenn Stewart, CEO of Spirit International, said, "Spirit International's core is about providing outstanding products and custom service as well as offering our clients the highest level of creativity. With the addition of Matt to our creative group, we will be pushing the retail experience to the next level".

Spirit International is headquartered in Carrollton, TX and has always pushed to be an industry leader in offering their clients innovative and engaging solutions for over 16 years. Other Spirit International companies and services include: LED lighting tailored to retail settings, POP displays, jewelry, packaging, children's furniture, golf accessories and an offshore trading company. With over 1,500 employees, domestic and international, Spirit owns and operates its own manufacturing facilities, and maintains strong business relationships with multiple vendors crossing a wide range of capabilities. For more information about Spirit International, go to: www.spiriti.com